

Shaykh Hasan Shiekh Shire

Lecturer and Researcher in Islamic Studies

Born: 1995 (1415 H), Somalia

Raised: London, the United Kingdom

Education and Qur'anic Memorisation

He completed the memorisation of the Qur'an under Shaykh Hasan al-Dinsur in Tarim, Yemen. He then completed his Islamic education in Tarim, predominantly at Dar Al Mustafa, where he pursued traditional studies in the Islamic sciences.

Teachers and Ijazahs Received From

During his studies, he received knowledge and ijazahs from a number of distinguished scholars, including Habib Ali Mashhur bin Hafiz, Habib Umar bin Hafiz, Shaykh Umar Husayn al-Khatib, Shaykh Taha Abd al-Hamid, Habib Hashim bin Sahl bin Ibrahim, Habib Muhammad bin Sumayt, Habib Muhammad al-Aydarus, Habib Kazim As-Saqqaf, Shaykh Umar Abu Bakr al-Khatib, Shaykh Husayn Ba Khamis, and Shaykh Mukhtar Jamil.

Professional Positions

Hasan Shiekh Shire currently serves as the Rector of Nur Sa'aadah in London, United Kingdom. He also works as a teacher at New Beginnings in the UK and serves as a Khatib and teacher at Al Madina Mosque in London. In addition, he works as a Chaplain at University College London Hospital in London and as a Mental Health Chaplain at St Andrews Healthcare in Essex. He has also served as the Lead Co-ordinator and Translator for Muwasala and as the International Programmes Manager for Rafah International in Yemen.

